Dear Senate Colleague,

We are writing to invite you to participate in an upcoming retreat – "Implementing ESSA: School Improvement and Innovation" – for the Aspen Senior Congressional Education Staff Network from 12:00 PM Tuesday, August 6, 2019 to 1:00 PM Thursday, August 8, 2019 at Airlie House, 6809 Airlie Road, Warrenton, VA 20187, located 50 miles from Washington, DC.

At this convening, staffers will hear from state and district leaders on the implementation of the Every Student Succeeds Act. Staffers will understand how states implementing their ESSA plans and building coherence across priorities, systems, and programs. Participants will also have a chance to explore school improvement, including how states and districts are responding to new reporting requirements and taking advantage of flexibilities to implement innovative initiatives like project-based learning and competency-based education. Finally, the retreat will provide an opportunity for staffers to engage in their own learning and build working relationships with colleagues from different parties and chambers and with leading experts in the field.

We are committed to working with you and the Senate Ethics Committee to ensure compliance with the Senate rules regarding privately-funded sponsored travel. Enclosed you will find all the forms necessary for filing the trip with the Ethics Committee:

- A detailed agenda listing discussion sessions
 A completed Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form and appendix
- A list of invited Senate staffers
- A blank Employee Pre-Travel Authorization form

You must complete the Traveler Form and submit it with the enclosed agenda, list of invited staffers, and Primary Trip Sponsor Form directly to the Senate Ethics Committee (220 Hart) no later than Monday, July 8, 2019. After receiving the completed travel package, the Ethics Committee will review and issue an approval to you or your sponsoring Member. After the trip, you will need to complete a post-travel form that we will email to you after the site visit.

Attendance is by invitation only, with no outside observers or lobbyists. Funding is provided solely by grants from established foundations – no government, individual, foreign, corporate, or special interest money is accepted. The Network is supported by The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation. The Aspen Education & Society Program maintains autonomy over invitations, materials, and the agenda for the retreat.

The retreat will begin at 12:00 PM on Tuesday, August 6, 2019, at Airlie House and will conclude at 1:00 PM on Thursday, August 8, 2019. Please plan your travel accordingly in order to be present for the duration of the retreat. Dress is business casual for all meetings.

The retreat promises to be productive and informative. We look forward to seeing you there.

Warm regards,

Ross Wiener

Appendix to Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form

Aspen Institute Senior Congressional Education Staff Network Retreat, August 6-8, 2019.

Question 12. Briefly describe the role of each sponsor in organizing and conducting the trip (response continued) -- The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation is not a sponsor of this trip and did not play a role in organizing, planning or conducting the trip. The Foundation provided grant funding to support the Aspen Institute Education & Society Program, including the Aspen Senior Congressional Education Staff Network; however, the Foundation did not earmark any funding for this trip.

Questions 13. Briefly describe the stated mission of each sponsor and how the purpose of the trip relates to the mission (response continued) – The Aspen Institute Education and Society Program seeks to provide a neutral forum to aid education policymakers in their efforts to improve K-12 public education. The purpose of the trip is to conduct a non-partisan educational retreat that encourages off-the-record, candid exchanges of ideas to support staffers' learning.

Question 15. Briefly describe the educational activities performed by each sponsor (other than sponsoring congressional trips) (response continued) — The Aspen Institute organizes numerous educational activities, including educational briefings, roundtables, forums and conferences for a diverse range of attendees including federal and state policymakers, business and organizational leaders, members of the press and the general public. The Aspen Institute Education and Society Program works with federal, state and local education leaders to improve K-12 student achievement, particularly for underserved students.

August 6-8, 2019

AGENDA

Retreat Goals:

Understand how states and districts are implementing the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), including school improvement strategies after the first year of school identifications;
 Understand how states and districts are using innovation, especially around teaching and learning, accountability, and assessment, to address equity and support school improvement;
 Engage in active learning and build working relationships with education leaders from the field, as well as with colleagues from different parties and chambers.

Tuesday, August 6, 2019

All meeting sessions are in the Federal Room

12:00 PM	Arrival and Check-in
12:30 – 1:00 PM	Lunch Airlie Room
1:15 – 1:45 PM	Welcome, Overview, and Retreat Objectives
	To guide the retreat's discussion, Congressional staffers and faculty members will begin by sharing their top learning objectives for the convening.
1:45 – 3:15 PM	Session I: Lessons from ESSA Accountability Year 1 Implementation
	Tiffany Stanley, Chief of Staff to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Utah State Board of Education
	Bryan Johnson, Superintendent, Hamilton County Schools
	Leah Walker, Director, Office of Equity and Community Engagement, Virginia Department of Education
	 Guiding Questions: How did the identification of schools for CSI, TSI or ATS compare to expectations and/or state plan projections?

from these approaches?

What interventions are states and districts pursuing and what are the initial learnings

How are SEAs and LEAs preparing for year 2 of ESSA accountability implementation? What adjustments are being made?

C

- To what extent and why are SEAs amending their approved ESSA plans and/or seeking waivers? How are states ensuring waivers improve equity in their ESSA plans?
- What role has the U.S. Department of Education (ED) played during the first year of implementation, including ED's monitoring processes in states, and what are state and districts expectations for what they should be doing in year 2 and beyond?

3:15 - 3:30 PM

Break

3:30 - 5:00 PM

Session II: Innovation in Teaching & Learning, Accountability & Assessment

Virgel Hammonds, Chief Learning Officer, KnowledgeWorks

Leah Walker, Director, Office of Equity and Community Engagement, Virginia Department of Education

Cindy Ambrose, Deputy Superintendent, Charleston County School District

Tiffany Stanley, Chief of Staff to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Utah

State Board of Education

Faculty will present for the first half of the session, followed by a facilitated discussion.

Faculty will detail how states and districts are currently using innovative approaches to teaching and learning, accountability and assessment, to increase equity and outcomes for all students. They will describe how innovation intersects with ESSA and other federal and state laws and policies and where there are challenges or additional opportunities.

Guiding Questions:

- What teaching and learning innovations, such as personalized learning or course access are states and districts pursuing as a result of ESSA (and/or federal policy)?
- Is Innovative Assessment Pilot enough to encouraging enough innovative assessment practices?
 - How do these innovations support ESSA's equity and outcome goals?
- How are these models being evaluated for impact? Or being used to support and complement school improvement initiatives?

5:00 - 5:15 PM

Taking stock: Staff reflections and feedback to guide remaining discussions

6:30 PM

Guiding Questions:

- Is ESSA's theory of action around school improvement playing out as envisioned?
 Why or why not?
- Are ATS and TSI identified schools sufficiently differentiated? Are underperforming subgroups being identified for improvement as required? How do we know?
 How are SEAs leveraging ESSA's evidence requirements for interventions? What interventions are they using?
- What role can/should ED play in promoting effective practices and evidence-based improvement strategies?

12:30 - 1:30 PM

Lunch

Airlie Room

1:30 – 3:15 PM Session V: Innovation and Federal Policy

Cindy Ambrose, Deputy Superintendent, Charleston County School District Virgel Hammonds, Chief Learning Officer, KnowledgeWorks

Staff will go on a partner walk to address the following questions:

- 1. What innovation(s) did you expect to see as a result of ESSA and how has this played out in practice?
- 2. How can innovation be balanced with the equity guardrails required in the law?

All staff and faculty will engage in a full group discussion reflecting on discussions from the partner walk. This will be followed by a look at how states and districts are thinking about innovation in accountability and assessment.

Additional Guiding Questions:

How does innovation support ESSA's goals?

- What implications for equity can we draw from innovative efforts at the state and district levels to date?
- What is the role of ESSA relative to other state and/or district policies, practices, and/or funding streams in supporting innovation? How could these policies be more coherent and aligned?

3:15 - 3:30 PM

Break

3:30 - 4:45 PM

Session VI: Exploring Report Cards in the ESSA Era

Leah Walker, Director, Office of Equity and Community Engagement, Virginia Department of Education

Bryan Johnson, Superintendent, Hamilton County Schools

Tiffany Stanley, Chief of Staff to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Utah State Board of Education

Guiding Questions:

- How is ESSA's theory of action around transparency and school improvement playing out?
- How are report cards helping to highlight equity? Are states complying with all of the reporting requirements under the law? Are there any concerns about transparency, accessibility, and disaggregation?
- How are SEAs and LEAs reporting on required additional measures (such as discipline or teacher quality data), or additional measures they have chosen to report on that do not contribute to accountability determinations?
 Which SEA or LEA report cards are especially well-designed? What about them seems most promising?

Session VII: Future Opportunities for Connecting Innovation and School Improvement under ESSA

Guiding Questions:

 How can state and district leaders leverage innovative practices to support school improvement efforts? What are the technical and adaptive challenges to achieving this?

- What is needed to ensure innovative practices comply with the law's requirements for evidence-based school improvement?
- How tight/loose do SEAs and LEAs need to be to create space for innovation while meeting required timelines for improvement and outcomes?
- What role can Congress and ED play to ensure SEA and LEA leaders are using federal funds to support innovation, while ensuring those federal funds are used on evidence-based school improvement efforts?
